Student Contract & Terms and Conditions – 30-Hour Yin Yoga Teacher Training (Bournemouth, Dorset)

This policy outlines the expectations and requirements for all trainees enrolled in the 30-Hour Yin Yoga Teacher Training with Joy Yoga & Wellness. By joining the course, you agree to the terms below.

Prerequisites

Applicants should have a regular yoga practice and a willingness to engage in Yin methodology with openness and commitment. No previous teacher training is required.

Accreditation

Upon successful completion, you will receive a 30-hour certificate recognised for continuing education with most accreditation bodies.

Attendance & Missed Hours

Full attendance is required to complete all contact hours. Missed content must be caught up through independent study or additional sessions arranged at tutor discretion, which may incur fees. Significant absence may require joining a future intake.

Assessments & Coursework

You must participate fully in all practice sessions, discussions, and assigned coursework. All tasks must be completed on time. Graduation is dependent on demonstrating safe, thoughtful, and competent understanding of Yin Yoga principles.

Ethical Standards

You agree to uphold respectful behaviour, maintain professionalism, and embody yogic values. Discriminatory behaviour, disruptive conduct, or compromising safety may result in removal from the programme or refusal of certification.

Online Learning

If required, elements of the course may be delivered online. This may include recorded livestreams for educational purposes only.

Changes to Course Delivery

In unforeseen circumstances, the training may be delivered partially online or adjusted. Refunds are not issued due to delivery changes beyond the organiser's control.

Complaints & Deferral

Complaints must be submitted in writing to joyyoga.wellness@gmail.com

Deferral may be offered in exceptional circumstances, subject to availability and any applicable fees.
